

Student Learning Outcomes :

Upon completing the course, the student will be able to

- x define basic steering and suspension principles.
- x diagnose and repair steering and suspension concerns.
- x demonstrate the ability to properly use diagnostic and repair tools and equipment and apply the system to industry standards.
- x perform on-vehicle testing of electronic and mechanical components.
- x evaluate the proper operation of sensors and control modules using appropriate test equipment and service manuals.
- x