

J. Sargeant Reynolds Community College
Course Content Summary

Course Prefix and Number: HIM 229 Credits: 2

Course Title: Performance Improvement in Health Care Settings

Course Description:

Focuses on concepts of facility-wide performance improvement, resource management, and risk management. Applies tools for data collection and analysis. Prerequisites or Co-requisites: HIM 142. Lecture 1 hour. Laboratory 2 hours. Total 3 hours per week.

General Course Purpose:

This course is designed to give the student an introduction to the broad topic of quality management and improvement in the health care environment. Special emphasis is placed on

Course Prerequisites and Co- requisites:

Prerequisites or Co-requisites: HIM 142

Student Learning Outcomes :

Upon completing the course, the student will be able to

- x Summarize the concept of quality and its importance in health care;
- x E; x Summarize the importance of patient safety and national patient safety;goals
- x Define and differentiate between the terms: clinical quality assessment, infection control, utilization management, case management, and risk management;
- x Explain the elements included in a quality assessment (QA) program; and
- x Identify the major organizations that publish clinical quality standards and guidelines.

Major Topics to Be Included:

- x Quality management functions and infrastructure
- x Planning and implementing an improvement strategy
- x Measurement, assessment, and improvement
- x Performance information and reference databases
- x Utilization and risk management
- x TJC, external regulators, reviewers, and standards
- x CMS and PRO functions and responsibilities

Effective Date/Updated: February 15, 2019