Orientation to American Sign Language and Interpreter Education

Advising topics such as: note-taking and study skills; learning styles; memory; personal development; and topical areas which are applicable to American Sign Language and